Developer asks Mokena acceptance

MOKENA — Hillcrest Builders, who have been developing residential sites in Orland Park for several years, will build single family dwellings and apartments on a 50-acre tract west of St. Mary's Church if the firm gets an OK from Mokena.

Michael Howard, a representative of the building firm, appeared before the village board last week.

He told the village trustees that his company planned to use 40 acres of the plot for

New Lenox to consider annexations

NEW LENOX — Annexation is expected to be a major subject at the regular meeting of the New Lenox village board tonight Jan. 5.

One of the proposals which may take the form of an ordinance at the meeting would bring Providence High School into the village. Also expected to be up for consideration is the annexation of the Leavitt and Son development and the property along U. S. 30 between the Clark service station and I-80, owned by heirs of the late State Senator Richard J. Barr.

Pre-annexation agreements involving these areas have been approved by the planning commission and the village boards. There were certain signatures needed before the village board can take final action. When the signatures were attached the papers will go to village attorney Wayne Johnson and he will prepare the annexation ordinances. As of last Thursday Johnson did not have the papers.

A pre-annexation agreement for Providence High School was scheduled to come before the plan commission on Monday.

The Providence pre-annexation agreement was expected to win the approval of the plan commission and the village board.

Work on the sewage treatment plant addition is almost completed and the engineers are to report tonight on the progress.

Also on the agenda again will be the fee question for the zoning board and plan commission. The village plans to put in a new schedule of fees for petitioners to pay.

Providence singers draws rave notices

By Gary E. Hinds

NEW LENOX — The Glee Club of Providence High School put on an appearance Sunday night that should put every area school group to shame.

Over 700 people packed the Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Joliet to view 110 voice Providence choir along with the Lewis College Schola, a volunteer group of 20 Lewis College Students.

The groups, under the direction of Brother Ralph Heppie, performed 14 songs ranging from selections from the musical, "Oliver", to contemporary Christmas songs.

The Men's Schola of Lewis College performed.

Village pays $500

MOKENA — Village Attorney George E. Sangmeister has been authorized by the village board to make a payment of $500 as the share of the village in the settlement reached with Marlene Stanger Batson as a result of an accident.

The accident took place several years ago near the Mokena Street crossing of the Rock Island. Mrs. Batson, a pedestrian, was injured when an automobile struck an icy rut in the street, skidded and struck her.

single family homes and the other 10 acres as apartment sites.

Howard wanted to get the reaction of the board on his proposal. He said that Hillcrest Builders did not want to spend a lot of money on plans and the like in making a presentation to the Plan Commission if some of the trustees were opposed to the idea of apartments and single-family dwellings.

Mayor Will Tuttle asked the board members if any of them had objections to the apartment idea and no one spoke up against it. A couple of the trustees even indicated they thought it might be a good thing.

Village Attorney George E. Sangmeister told the Hillcrest representative that the village officials could not go on record as of now in favor of the development plans because something might come up that would make it unfeasible.

Howard told the board his firm has an option to buy the land that will expire Feb. 28. The land in question is bordered on the east by 116th Avenue and on the west by 118th Avenue and lies between 195th and 197th Streets.

This is the site that Leo Marcoux, a former resident of Mokena, proposed to develop several years ago. At the time he was talking with a Joliet builder specializing in pre-fabricated homes to develop the tract but the village board killed the plan when it insisted that the homes had to be custom built.

The Hillcrest Builders say the single-family homes run between $32,000 and $40,000.

Howard said that the development would add about 900 persons to Mokena's population. Mayor Tuttle said that the present sewage disposal plant would not accommodate 900 more persons now but that it was in the process of being enlarged and could handle the additional customer by spring.

Hillcrest Builders have erected numerous apartments in Orland Park, as well as single-family homes. Hillcrest also wanted to develop a tract abutting Connecticut Hills in Frankfort with a combination of single-family dwellings and apartments but the residents of Connecticut Hills appeared in force at a meeting of the village board when the final vote was taken and the plan was turned down.

Howard told the board that his firm was ready to start building as soon as the plans for the development were approved by the proper agencies.

"We are willing to construct a fully improved subdivision," Howard told the board. "We are not looking for Mokena to do this or that. We will put in storm sewers, sanitary sewers, water, sidewalks and curbs at our expense."

formed three numbers solo, and a guest soloist, Greg Morin, gave admirable performances of "Jean", "Love Song", and "The Christmas Song," the acoustics in the high-arched church notwithstanding.

Among the more impressive selections that the groups performed were varied selections from "Oliver", with Rebecca Skvorc and Larry Filetti acting as soloists, Albert's "We Need a Little Christmas", and "Three Songs For Christmas," where the audience was invited to participate.

The choir did an excellent version of Harry Simeone's arrangement of "Do You Hear What I Hear," a song which many groups try to accomplish, but usually with only mediocre results.

The concert was highlighted by a brass section consisting of six, and a string and percussion section of seven. The addition of the orchestra gave added emphasis to the selections in which it participated.

The combined choruses and ensemble climaxed its performance with Handel's classic "Joy To The World" and Nelson's "Choral Fanfare for Christmas." The resounding chords heard that evening were among the finest heard from a high school group, and hopefully, area residents will be treated to more of the same in the future.

After a month of gallivanting about the countryside this deer is now penned again at the Alsip Nursery in Frankfort Township. Holding the animal is Patrolman Ronald Reed of the Frankfort village police force, who downed her with a tranquilizer dart, and Reed's partner in the hunt, Patrolman Virgil Coleman.

Month's search ends

Police catch their deer

FRANKFORT — Frankfort police, who in addition to their regular duties, turned a hand to deer hunting the past month and last Wednesday it paid off.

Two members of the department, Robald Reed and Virgil Coleman bagged their quarry off 84th Av. in Lincoln Estates, following a telephone call from James Wilson, who resides in the area and was employed by the Alsip Nursery, on U.S. 45, owner of the deer.

Officer Reed shot the deer—with a tranquilizer dart—in the left foreleg. The medication took effect quickly and the Village water tank undergoes face lift

MOKENA — The Mokena village board has entered into a two-phase contract with the Water Tower Paint and Repair Co., Inc. for the preservation of the Front Street water storage tank.

The company has already repaired and repainted the interior. Next year it is to clean out the tank and paint the exterior for a price of $4,382. Beginning in 1973 the maintenance charge will be $1,659. In 1976 a new liner will be installed in the tank.

There is one contract covering the interior and another dealing with the upkeep of the exterior. The two contracts cover 11 years, one ending in 1976 and the other in 1977.

Trustee Chester Ebert said that no decision has been reached yet on installing a new roof on the tower. It had been suggested that a steel roof be placed there but now the board is studying the suggestion that redwood be employed instead of the steel.

ROBERT L. BROWN

Police graduate

NEW LENOX — Four officers of the Will County Sheriff's Office were among 48 policemen who graduated Friday, Dec. 17, from Northern Illinois University's second Police Institute of 1971-72.

The six-week training course is taught by Gerald Pierce, director, NIU's Law Enforcement Center. The Will County graduates are George M. Cauthon, 500 Algonquin, and Paul J. Dixon, 1208 Massachusetts Ave., both Joliet; Robert L. Brown, Box 69-A, New Lenox, and Steve L. Rathbun, 809 Arnold St., Plainfield.

animal made only a few bounds before it dropped. Reed and Coleman wrapped it with a blanket and carried it back to its pen at the nursery by automobile.

They kept the animal warm until it recovered from the shock. The deer, a two-year old doe which is expected to have an offspring in the spring, and a yearling female, are native to Japan. They had been doubling as reindeer during the holiday season at the nursery.

They are a small specie known as Sika deer. The older of the pair stands at about two feet at the shoulder.

The deer escaped through a hole in the wire fence enclosing the pen about two weeks before Christmas.

She had been sighted several times in the woods of the area but last Wednesday was the first time it got in range of the tranquilizer gun.

Mokena board appoints officer Fitch as chief

MOKENA — Harold Fitch, who has been serving as active chief of police of Mokena since December, 1970, has been elevated to the rank of full chief by action of the village board.

He assumed his new position on New Year's Day. His appointment by Mayor Will Tuttle was recommended by Trustee Anthony Dina, police commissioner, and received the unanimous approval of the board.

Chief Fitch took over the duties of acting chief twice. The first time was in July, 1970, when the then chief, Wayne Ryder and three patrolmen, plus the radio operators, resigned following a clash between Ryder and some elected officials.

Ryder was succeeded by Roger W. Sutton, who had worked as a policeman at Tinley Park for eight years. Sutton resigned after six weeks because of ill health and went to Florida. Fitch again was named acting chief.

Since that time he has operated the department which has added a fulltime patrolman and has further expansion in mind.

six weeks — the duration of the course — and was graduated in the top 10 of a class of 180. Fitch has named Coffee as drill instructor for the parttime members of the department.

Mayor Tuttle described Fitch as "the most capable police chief ever hired by the village."

Fitch resides in Arbury Hills and has been a member of the Mokena police force for a number of years on a parttime basis. He is employed by the Clark Oil Co. at Blue Island. Dina told the board that Fitch will retire from the oil firm in two years. In his new position as Chief Fitch will receive a salary of $650 a month to start.

Chief Fitch was not present at the village board meeting when his appointment was announced. He was in Indianapolis, where he had been called because of the illness of his father. He had returned to Mokena Saturday.

Mokena eighth grader 64 fatality

MOKENA — Funeral services for 13-year-old Cheryl Madsen, of Mokena who was fatally injured the evening of Dec. 27 when struck by an automobile, were conducted Dec. 30 at 2 p.m. from the Hirsch Memorial Chapel in Tinley Park.

The Rev. Laslo Hunyady, pastor of St. John's United Church of Christ, officiated and interment was in St. John's Cemetery here.

Cheryl, an eighth grade student at Willowcrest School, and a 13-year-old boy, Mark McEntee, N. Brightway, were walking east along the south edge of Front St., just east of 114th Ave., about 6 p.m. when the accident occurred. Police said the two were struck by an east bound car driven by Corwyn Brunner, 43, Normandy Lane, Mokena.

According to the investigators' report Brunner said a west bound auto with bright lights on passed him just before the accident. He was quoted as saying that suddenly he glimpsed a silhouette and applied his brakes.

Mokena Police Chief Harold Fitch said tire marks on the pavement indicated that Brunner stopped in 69 feet.

The boy apparently was sideswiped or knocked to one side. He suffered a broken leg and was taken to Silver Cross hospital. His condition is reported as satisfactory.

The girl was thrown up over the hood of the car, struck the windshield and then slid off the top of the car. She suffered multiple injuries but was alive when placed in an ambulance. She died enroute the hospital.

Ronald Kreml, an army medic home on leave, drove by just after the accident and stopped to give first aid. He remained with the girl, who was the more seriously injured, of the two.

Chief Fitch gave Brunner a ticket charging him with driving too fast for conditions and failure to yield right-of-way to pedestrians.

Cheryl Madsen was the 64th traffic victim in Will County in 1971, according to Coroner Willard G. Blood. No date has yet been set for the inquest.

Miss Madsen is survived by her mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Clegg; two sisters, Mrs. Linda Kramer, and Rhonda Madsen, all of Mokena, and her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Evelyn Freeman, of Omaha, Neb. Mr. and Mrs. Clegg were visiting her mother when the accident occurred.

News media helps

US postal service

ORLAND PARK — Postal officials are giving credit to the news media for playing a major role in the successful handling of mail during the Christmas rush season. Since mid-November the media has stressed the importance of mailing early, using Zip Codes, and packaging properly. The post office promised that: "If the customers mail on time, we'll deliver it on time."

In the Greater Chicago Metropolitan Area parcel post volume for the season mailing period was ahead of last year.

Figures for the 13-state Central Region, headquartered in Chicago, show originating mail volume to be up 2.1 percent and parcel post up more than 14 percent over last year.

Tinley ready for a snow job

By Jean Wille

TINLEY PARK — If Mother Nature decides to get even with Tinley Park for messing up her landscape with signs, sidewalks and streets, the growing village could end up with the "snow job" of the year.

However, if we are reprimanded and the lady bedecks our streets with more than the desired one-half inch of white frosting on our Christmas cake, the public works department is well equipped to handle her anger.

According to Bob Powers, Tinley Park's sole director of the department since its conception in 1958, all the 11 men under Power's power are "the best," and well trained to clear the towns 60 miles of streets.

The Public Works Department stockpiles salt and "treated slag," (slag is cheaper and not as damaging to cars as salt) for the winter months. There are two trucks used for spreading salt (a new one is expected in January).

In addition, there are six village owned vehicles for plowing snow and a front-loader for hauling and dumping the unwelcome "heavenly cotton bales." All the plows are painted every summer and brushed with a liquid wax. The trucks average 8 - 10 miles to a gallon of gasoline when plowing snow. In dry weather they average 10 - 12 miles per gallon.

In order to increase the efficiency of the total manpower and equipment, Powers has divided the village into five sections and assigned two-man teams to each section. The men are asked to familiarize themselves with their areas. After a snow storm each street is plowed four times; once down the middle, once on each side and a fourth time for a final clearing. There are three crews for salting for icy conditions.

All employees from the department must be available if more than one inch of snow is forecast. Employees are not allowed overtime but instead are granted ed time off to equalize extra working hours.

Two weeks ago, when local forecasters were calling for 6 - 8 inches of snow, Powers called a "private weather forecasting company" for their report. He claims that he has found them to be more accurate in their predictions.

The private forecast was that the storm "was going to miss our area," so, the Tinley Park "powers that be" sat tight, and held their breath. The storm did pass us by, fortunately.

However, the village plows can be attached in a matter of minutes, so there is really no need for concern unless the minute men are outranked by natural forces.

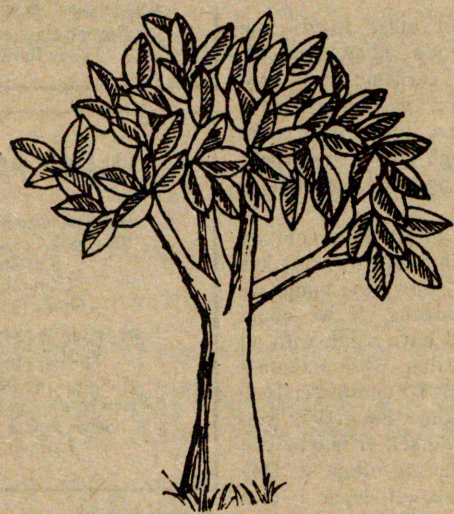

Powers is planning on installation of a snow fence on the north side of 167th Street between Oleander and Oconto. The snow fence is put up every year and evidently helps considerably to keep the street open.

The director commended the Tinley Park Police Department for their past assistance in alerting the public works department to bad weather forecasts for snow and sleeting conditions.

Charles Petrak is the new Street Superintendent and hereafter will be in charge of all snow clearing, street lights, storm sewers and street markings.

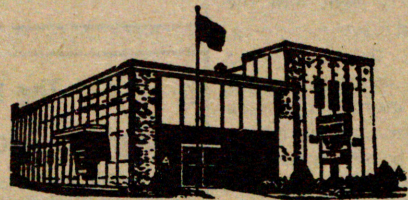

People of the village can assist during snow removal periods by watching their children to make sure they do not get near the plows which occasionally throw stones into the air, besides other apparent dangers. It also helps the department if citizens remove garbage cans from the curbs.

One more "act of mercy" people of the village can offer during snow storms and snow plowing, would be removal of snow from fire hydrants. The village has approximately 600 fire hydrants throughout the town. The fire department and the public works department would appreciate help in this endeavor. So would Fido.

Pioneer effort by Oak Forest

Oak Forest residents may have experienced some confusion and dismay over a recent television news program which highlighted the village of Skokie as the first community in Illinois to offer a free-blood replacement program to all of its residents.

The board of directors of the Joleen Watson Blood Program wishes to inform Oak Forest residents as well as the general public that on the contrary, Oak Forest has the distinction of being the pioneer in attempting a community-wide blood replacement program, a fact which is corroborated by the Mid-America chapter of the American Red Cross.

Soon after the Joleen Watson Program began in the spring of 1970, inquiries from other communities began coming in. The conclusion of the first successful year in Oak Forest gave rise to the beginning of similar operations in other areas.

Although the Oak Forest program is now nearing the end of its second year, and the quota of blood donors is far from being filled, the good that has been accomplished cannot be overlooked, and the people of Oak Forest deserve full credit for their efforts in sustaining it thus far.

It would appear that Oak Forest has been slighted by the attention given to another community, but the success of any effort is determined by results and not favorable publicity.

Through the generosity of Oak Forest residents, hundreds of units of blood were collected which were in turn used to sustain life. Families of heart, cancer and leukemia patients were relieved of the tremendous burden of replacing blood at high cost. And, most significantly, a movement was begun to remove commercial, high-risk blood from the market.

The next blood drawing in the Joleen Watson Blood Program is scheduled for Friday, Jan. 14, from 5-10 p.m. at Oak Forest High School. 250 donors are needed at this and the final drawing in March to extend for another year, free blood-replacement coverage for the whole village.

For yourself, your family and your community—give the gift of life and be a blood donor. For an appointment call 687-7737 or 687-3936.

Christ is born!

Students at Tinley Park St. George School presented their annual Christmas program Tuesday, Dec. 21, for their families and friends. The program of songs, poems and a play entertained the audience.

Editor:

People take pot shots at the news media today and the news media wonders why. Here is an example of poor reporting, lack of facts, and insufficient research or background on an important issue presented by Channel 7 on December 30th on its five o'clock news to the whole Chicago area that needs pot shots taken at it. The story under fire was about a blood program started in Skokie, Illinois as being the first total community program in the Cook County area.

Channel 7 received a number of calls from officials of the Joleen Watson Memorial Blood Program of Oak Forest, Illinois informing Channel 7 that they were badly in error. Channel 7 was asked to correct the report or stop broadcasting the wrong information without any reference to the fact that they had been misled and that Oak Forest and not Skokie started the first such program in this area. Channel 7 didn't seem interested in checking out the actual facts or in correcting the report, and represented the same erroneous report on their six o'clock edition of the news.

On the program a Dr. Monty Levinson stated to reported Jim Gibbons that their program (Skokie's) was the first of its kind in all of Cook County. This is totally wrong and is an outrageous scrambling of the actual facts for what looks like political or glory seeking reasons.

At the kick off press conference called by the Skokie program approximately two weeks before, the Skokie program officials were informed that they were presuming to be first but were in fact not and that Oak Forest was actually first in starting this kind of blood protection program in the six counties surrounding Chicago, including Cook County. Skokie officials chose to disregard these facts and presented to Channel 7 what they knew to be a misleading and inaccurate report. Channel 7 in turn presented this to the public without further verification.

The actual blood program is not under fire, although the Skokie officials should not have presented themselves falsely as the first when they are more like the fourth and possibly the fifth community to have this program. The Joleen Watson Memorial Blood Program began this type of blood protection program in March of 1970 when donating blood was almost all commercial in the Chicago land area. The need for this type of program was realized when Joleen Watson, the little 3 1/2 year old year that is the programs namesake, died from leukemia and had used a tremendous amount of blood in her futile fight for life was brought to the attention of a few private citizens who wanted to help others in this situation. Oak Forest has since encouraged and even helped other surrounding communities set up the same programs for themselves. Oak Forest welcomes Skokie to the ranks and wishes them success on their new venture since our aims and goals are the same.

But lets give credit where credit is due. Oak Forest has worked quietly for two years to make programs like this more widely accepted and adopted in other communities in this entire six county area surrounding Chicago.

Let us hope in the near future we will be able to listen with confidence to the (facts?) presented by the news media.

The vacuum has digested the last piece of stray tinsel. Grumbling children are on their knees with whisk broom and dustpan, corralling those six inch pine needles which looked so well on the tree we selected at the tree farm, but are such a pain as they now cling for dear life to the loops of the carpeting.

The fake snow on the window doesn't know its big day is over, and makes a liar of the manufacturer whose directions said it was easy to remove with warm water.

As usual, someone has placed the small Christmas ornaments in the box with big compartments, and all the big ornaments will now of necessity be squeezed into egg cartons . . . with all the success of squeezing a Grade A Jumbo size egg into a pullet egg box.

The toddler is crying because the creche is being dismantled, and father's day is complete as he gets to chop up the tree and burn "that fire hazard" as he announces in his most Grinch-like manner.

Joyeaux Noel is now in its hangover season!

Now is the time for mother's analysis of the Christmas card list. Out comes "THE LIST" which is guaranteed more accurate than Internal Revenue files.

Filed by year, entries of SENT, RECEIVED, SENT BUT NOT RECEIVED, RECEIVED BUT NOT SENT, are basic. Until recently more refined LISTS included FIRST CLASS MAIL and THIRD CLASS MAIL.

After checking, cross matching and filing I wonder what to do with the cards I have received. Some are so elegant I marvel at the financial affluence — as I think I'm supposed to do — of people who send those gold rimmed cards with raised works of art. The ultimate clue of "we're in the money" is the gold lined envelope. Each year I save these, But Christmas card place placements, coasters and bookmarks look so out of place at a Fourth of July picnic!

One big trouble I have is suppressing the guilt feeling when I throw away a "not so swell" card. As if I were casting out friendship for want of a gold lined envelope!

A touch of sadness lies amid all the gay good wishes of the Santas, the Madonnas, the bells and the snowmen when my "SENT" column has the notation "RIP." Each year sees more and more good friends who have not lived the year to another Christmas.

Then one looks at the "RECEIVED" column and sees the absence of a check-in after certain names.

Those who have lost a son during the year — one wonders how they enjoyed this Christmas.

The husband who spent last New Year's at a party at your house with his wife — this year spent New Year's with his four motherless children.

The family whose long-ill father died — on Christmas eve — what were their thoughts as they waited Christmas day to visit the funeral parlor?

The widow who for the first time must sign her card with a poignant "Mrs." — who carved the roast for her Christmas dinner?

Those who are critically ill and hospitalized — was the Christmas caroling of a Girl Scout troop inspirational or just very, very sad?

The long-time married couple who were divorced — neither of them sent cards to those of us who knew them in their loving days when they were poorer, but oh, so happy!

But, the worst feeling of all is looking at the "SENT BUT NOT RECEIVED" column and see the people who dropped me from their LIST. What were their thoughts as they drew a line through my name? Was I weighed pro and con and found to be wanting? How should one feel to know that someone sat down one night with a LIST and discarded him?

Each year I go through the Christmas Card Trauma — before and after — I am tempted to forget the whole thing. And yet I hate to relinquish a tradition — even though not a very old one. Some people speak of tradition as the refuge of the unenlightened and the unintelligent. But isn't it the traditions which we build in our families, our religion, our culture, our social relationships that we remember with warmth?

Are we always to be so "intelligent and enlightened?" Perhaps without all the trappings and traditions — yes, even the foolish and gold rimmed cards, Christmas would slip by us unnoticed.

We can do without the cards with Santas and Madonnas, bells and creches; but can we really do without the meanings which their bombardment of our lives force us to recall?

On second thought

By Glenn Logan

So far — that is of the closing days of the old year — the sloganeers had not come up with anything for 1972. At least in the periodicals and the various newspapers this corner has read no one has come up with any slogan dealing with what may be expected of the new year — zippy or otherwise.

To be remembered, and therefore repeated, a slogan must be short and employ a rhyming word. Remember poor Miriam who wasn't doing too well socially until along came irrim. And then there was the one about where that yellow went when you took up with Pepsodent. Those were TV commercials repeated endlessly, it seemed, not only on TV but by millions of kids.

But what to do with '72? We don't have a rhyming dictionary on the premises but there must be a lot of words to rhyme with '72. For one there "through," or "thru," if you want to keep it short. And since this is an election year it would be surprising if "through" is not given a hard workout.

It can be used by all parties and all candidates, whether they are the "ins" or the "outs." One could also work in "blew" someplace in the political picture, also "phev!"

"Blue" would be fine for pessimists but it could be used by optimists with a modifier.

There are a lot of other words that will go with '72 . . . ado, adieu, cue, curfew, clue, caribou, curlicue, do, dew, derring-do, emu, ewe, goo, gnu, grew, hew, knew, loo, mew, moo, new, pew, pooh, rue, stew, slough, slew, slue, spew, too, view, yew, you and zoo, to name a few.

But you will have to try those out on your own piano. This department has many limitations and among the things we don't do is make slogans. If we could then maybe we would have a job with an advertising agency dealing with manufactured items or radio and TV commercials.

If you want a slogan about 1972 you will have to make it yourself or maybe you will hear one you like and adopt it. One thing about a do-it-yourself slogan is that it is a fairly safe process. You may get your fingers inkstained but you won't mash or cut them like you might if dealing with saws and hammers.

In addition to making your own slogan you can also make your own forecasts as to the general outlook for 1972.

If memory serves correctly this corner suggested that your own predictions for 1971 probably would stand up with those of the professional outlookers. Just keep them as general as possible and you are sure to hit on 50 per cent of them and any prognosticator who is right half the time is doing a pretty good job.

You will notice that the horoscopes published in various newspapers are rather general and the more papers you look at the more different are the horoscopes so some of it has to be on target.

The horse track handicappers while maybe quoting long odds on some of the entries, helged in the comments so in case one of the long-shots wins they are probably covered by the comment, "May surprise," or "Can show great improvement."

So make your slogans, make your forecasts and while it is a little late, this corner wishes all of you a very fine year.

Westhaven saw changes in '71

WESTHAVEN — As the year 1971 comes to a close the village of Westhaven has experienced many changes. A large corporation has built one hundred and forty single family homes, the once one hundred and ten home community now boasts a Bell Telephone building, (to be completed in February 1972) also a parcel of land at 167th street and Route 45 will be annexed to Westhaven in the near future, which village officials hope will bring in much needed commercial business.

A church complex to be built at 159th and Haven Ave will also be a welcome addition to Westhaven.

The highlight of the year came on April 20th when a complete new board of trustees was elected by a 2-1 vote margin, leaving the village president as the only previously elected official.

The new board and clerk ran on a ticket promising to end one man rule in Westhaven. They did not agree that a village President should also be acting police chief and building inspector, President Curtis Whitaker had assumed these duties in the past.

Many problems were encountered by the new board, in September the trustees went to the Illinois States Attorney, alleging that the village President would not turn over the village squad cars to the new police employee, that the board had hired, and that official village records were missing. Consequently the Police cars were relinquished by the President, and some missing records have been discovered. Both Police & Building Departments are now staffed by professionals.

As 1971 draws to a close the village finds itself involved in a court battle between its Officials. The trustees have filed a suit against the village president, and are asking that the courts force President Whitaker to sign bills that they the board have approved for payment. The board claims that many necessary services have come to a halt in Westhaven, due to these bills piling up, the village is also in danger of losing its credit rating, and most important of all the safety and well being of the residents are at stake.

Westhaven is also involved in court with the Fernway Annexation, as Village Attorney Ronald Glink has filed several objections to the Fernway petition to annex to Orland Park.

The Homeowners Association has also grown in relation to village growth in 1971, the association sponsored its first picnic on August 29th, which was a huge success, hopes are to make this an annual event. The second annual Christmas Program sponsored by the association was held Dec. 19th to the delight of all the village children.

To sum up 1971 in Westhaven, it has been a busy year for all.

Rent-A-Plow

WESTHAVEN — Unlike many of the larger villages, tiny Westhaven owns no snow removal equipment. The municipality with a population of 500 at the last official census, has only 10 streets at present.

Henry Hiller, Jr. of Lockport will do the snow plowing for Westhaven's streets with a road grader.

Trustee Charles Downie, the village official with the responsibility of contacting Hiller, will use his own discretion as to how much snow fall with constitute calling in the plowing equipment.

Fees for the snow removal service will be $17.00 per hour until Jan. 1, 1972, when the fee will be $18.00 per hour, with a four hour minimum.

Garrison out of House race, cites 'pressures'

SOUTHWEST — Ray H. Garrison, a Flossmoor attorney has announced today that he has withdrawn as a candidate for the Republican nomination for state representative from the Ninth legislative district. The Ninth district includes Rich and Bremen townships and portions of Bloom, Orland, and Thornton townships.

In announcing his withdrawal, Garrison stated, "I am confident that I would have been nominated and elected, though present circumstances in the Ninth district make it difficult for any independent Republican candidate to present to the people his qualifications and views on the issues." He said that he had withdrawn from the race solely because of "the intense and sustained pressure being applied against some key campaign workers and financial supporters."

Garrison stated, "On December 18, the elected Rich township Republican committeeman categorically demanded that I not file for either state senator or state representative in order to prevent a primary contest." Despite this demand, Garrison filed for state representative on Dec. 20.

Garrison stated that the Rich Township GOP precinct captains have not endorsed any state legislative candidates. Endorsements are expected to be made at a meeting scheduled for mid-January.

Consumer survey slated

COOK COUNTY — The Chicago Data Collection Center will be asking a sample of households in this area about their buying and home improvement expectations during the period of January 3-15, 1972.

The survey is made four times yearly as a part of a nationwide effort to guide governmental agencies in developing programs based on consumer purchasing patterns. Households in the survey will be asked if they expect to buy a house, car, or major household appliance during the next year, and if they have made recent purchases on these items.

Information supplied by persons participating in the survey is kept confidential by law and will be published only in the form of statistical totals.

Traffic arrest gets 4 charges

TINLEY PARK — A Tinley Park youth was charged on four counts Dec. 28, as the result of a traffic arrest.

Scott Burns, 17, of 6846 W. 177th St., was charged with improper lane usage, not having a valid drivers license in his possession, driving under the influence of alcohol and resisting arrest.

Tinley Park policeman Lou Jogmen was on patrol near 183rd street and 76th Ave., when he noticed a car northbound on Harlem at 185th street strike the median strip a number of times.

Jogmen followed the car to 183rd where it turned on 76th avenue, and continued west, finally stopping in a bowling alley parking lot.

Jogmen approached the car and asked the driver for his license, but the officer said the youth could only produce two traffic citations he was apparently driving on.

The officer asked the youth to accompany him to the squad car so he could obtain further information. Jogmen said that in the squad car the youth became abusive, and refused to stay in the squad car, and kicked the squad, and pushed him.

Jogmen restrained the youth and called for assistance, and officer Ken Gates arrived to help Jogmen. A Feb. 9 court date has been set for Burns.

PTA meeting

OAK FOREST — The Special Education PTA of Southwest Cook County will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 11, at the Jack Hill School, 151st Street near Central Avenue.

Premium to be paid

CHICAGO — Dividends exceeding $15-million will be paid during 1972 to Illinois veterans who hold their government insurance, according to John B. Naser, director of the Chicago regional office of the Veterans Administration.

Naser said that 215,653 World War II and Korean vets who retained their National Service Life Insurance (NSLI) will receive $14,358,000 during the year in dividends. Dividends are paid on the date of the anniversary of the policy.

In addition, 7,451 World War I veterans who retained their U. S. Government Life Insurance (USGLI) will receive $1,086,000 in dividends. Naser pointed out insurance varies from $1,000 to $10,000 depending on how much the veteran retained.

Both hunters fired at the bird as it got up between them at the permit-operated area. VA cuts out delays

Two million veterans and servicemen expected to enroll under the G.I. Bill this fiscal year will get their first monthly checks sooner under a Veterans Administration "package" plan.

The agency said the plan will reduce delays due to the school or individual failing to send it required information by providing at one time all the information needed to pay education allowances.

Instructions on this plan, which has been tested successfully in the agency's PREP program (for military personnel), are being sent to VA field offices, it was pointed out.

The plan calls for a veteran to submit a copy of his separation document, proof of dependency, and application for education benefits to VA at the same time, prior to enrollment. Forms for this information are available at all VA offices.

If a veteran enrolls at a school before applying for G.I. Bill education benefits, he should present these completed forms to the school and ask it to forward them to VA in one package when the school certifies his enrollment.

VA officials suggest also that the veteran check later with his school to make sure his forms and certification of enrollment have been sent to VA.

Although cooperation of schools is voluntary, school officials are as concerned as VA that veteran-students get their monthly checks as soon as possible, VA explained.

Veterans desiring information on education benefits were urged to contact local VA offices or veterans service organization representatives.

County traffic deaths increase

JOLIET — The traffic toll for Will County in 1971 was greater than 1970, according to the annual report of coroner Willard G. Blood.

The number of deaths due to moving motor vehicles last year was 67, compared to 56 for 1970.

Of the 67, 21 died as a result of accidents in which a single car was involved. There were cases in which the driver lost control and went off the road, with the car either rolling over or striking a fixed object, such as a tree, pole or culvert.

The number of pedestrians fatally injured totaled 17. Broken down still further the report shows eight persons killed in two-car collisions; one in which three cars were involved; one in a truck-car crash; one in a collision involving two trucks and a car; three in a truck-car smash; two in a six-car mishap; two in a train-truck grade crossing accident, and three bike riders in collisions with autos.

The number injured in auto accidents in 1971 is expected to approach the 1,200 figure, according to LaVerne Hahney, head of the Joliet Safety Council. Figures are not available as to how many were permanent injuries.

One of the unusual things about the coroner's report for the past year was the number of homicides, 17, in 1971.

There were 13 murders in 1970.

The number of homicides has been increasing steadily over the years after an interval of about 30 years when the yearly average of murders was three, including those committed at the penitentiaries among the inmate population.

The number of suicides, 21, was down. The count for suicides in 1970, the coroner's records show, was 27.

There were 10 drownings last year; six persons died from burns or smoke inhalation and the death of three persons was attributed to falls.

Veterans may review records

Help for veterans who want a review of their "other than honorable" discharge from military service is available at all Veterans Administration offices, Administrator of Veterans Affairs Donald E. Johnson said today.

A VA directive to this effect was sent to field stations, following an announcement by Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird that military departments would "review for recharacterization administrative discharges issued under other than honorable conditions solely on the basis of personal use of drugs or possession of drugs for such use."

Primary purpose of the new policy is to provide an opportunity for this group to become eligible for VA medical treatment. Drug abuse treatment in VA is being increased six-fold, but the agency is barred by law from treating veterans with discharges other than honorable.

Less than one of every 500 men released from service during 1969 and 1970 received other than honorable discharges because of drug abuse, according to Department of Defense figures. Out of some 2,000,000 separations during that period, 4,152 undesirable discharges directly attributable to drug abuse were issued.

It is the responsibility of the veteran to request a review of his administrative discharge, and the application for review must be submitted to the military department that issued the discharge. A self-explanatory form for applying (DD Form 293) is available at VA offices and at all military installations.

VA employees have been instructed by administrator Johnson to "be alert in all their contacts with each former serviceman, to ascertain the character of discharge or separation."

State Health Director issues warning on dangers of polio

SPRINGFIELD — Dr. Franklin D. Yoder, director of the Illinois Department of Public Health recently warned of a "definite possibility of a major polio problem in Illinois in the near future."

"The appearance of low immunization levels in pre-school children and the presence of isolated polio virus in Illinois indicate an immediate urgency to immunize all pre-schoolers and to protect the rest of the population with a booster dose of trivalent vaccine," Dr. Yoder said.

James Donoho, chief of the State Immunization Project said that blood survey studies conducted in parts of the state indicate that as little as 18 per cent of the pre-school population is immunized against polio.

"The problem is further complicated by the variety of vaccines available," he continued. "The numerous types of polio vaccine made available since 1955 have caused a great deal of confusion. Some people received inactivated polio virus (shots); others received the monovalent oral vaccine, and still others took the trivalent oral vaccine."

"Oral vaccines contain live virus," he explained. "Each type of vaccine requires a different number of doses and we are now

Titans fall in tourney play

BREESE — After recovering from what coach Gordon Rogers dubbed the tournament jitters the Tinley Park basketball team won two of its final three games in the Mater Dei Holiday Tournament.

The Titans first round foe was O'Fallon. A front line made up of three players 6-6, plus numerous mistakes by the Titans gave the Panthers a 63-44 first round win.

Jack Triezenberg paced the Titans with 17 points followed by Randy Lindstrom with 14. Triezenberg who was second in scoring in the tournament with 75 points in four games was named to the all tournament team.

Waterman downs Celts

WEST CHICAGO — Providence, the best of the losers in 1970 had to settle for second best in 1971.

The Celtics who last year won consolation honors in the West Chicago Holiday tournament tried to repeat last week, but were beaten by Waterman 60-56.

Consolation plays pits losing tournament teams against each other, so that teams who lose in the early rounds haven't made long trips for nothing. It also gives losers something to play for.

Harvard beat the Celts in the first round 97-84, setting a tournament single game scoring record in the process. In first round consolation action the Celts topped host West Chicago, 74-72, before losing to Waterman.

Against Harvard the Celts found themselves victims of their "Game" and by the time they recovered couldn't overcome the Harvard lead.

Because coach Pat Sullivan has a small team he has developed the strategy of having his team "come right at the other guy," and because the bigger teams aren't used to this style of play it has produced some upset wins for the Celts this season.

In the opener Harvard came right at Providence, and the Celts seemed to freeze against the tactics. At one point the Celts were down 52-24, but came back to trail only 89-80, with a minute left to play.

The hot shooting Hornets rattled the Providence defense and ended with a 55.4 shooting percentage.

After a slow start which saw them hit on only two out of 10 in the first period the Celts offense perked up and finished with a respectable 50.0 percent.

Joe Priebay led the attack with 22 points and a dozen rebounds, Joe King followed with 21 points and eight rebounds. Ken Carruthers, did well in a reserve roll with eight points, and grabbed six rebounds.

Errors proved costly to the Celts as they made 34 turnovers, 12 of them coming early in the game as Harvard built up the lead. Against West Chicago the Celts went to the press and held a 24-22 first period lead, and a 42-33 edge at the halftime.

West Chicago turned on a fourth period rally and at one point trailed only 73-72, but the Celts hung on for the win. Priebay paced the Celts with 18 points. Followed by Steve Gant with 15.

Bob Broavato who came in the third period led a Celt surge with 11 points in the period.

In the consolation title game against Waterman the celts were plagued by poor outside shooting and made only 34 percent during the game.

With just under seven minutes to play the Celts tied the score at 48-48, but then Waterman moved ahead to stay. Priebay was the games top scorer with 24 points.

Providence returns to action in the private School League this weekend. The Celts host Luther South, at 8 p.m. Friday, and then play at Walter Luthern Saturday.

Tinley takes 2 mat titles

PARK FOREST — Tinley Park had two individual champions and finished 8th in the 16-team field in the Rich East Holiday wrestling tournament.

A couple of junior matmen Randy Reagan, at 132; and Bill Frankenberger, at 145 were the Titan champs. Reagan won 9-0 in his title bout and Frankenberger won a 2-1 championship decision.

Mike Meloy at 185; and Rich Aggen at heavyweight, went into the tournament undefeated, and both lost in the finals at their weights.

Meloy was beaten in the title match 5-4, and Aggen battled his opponent to a 2-2 tie losing on a referees decision.

Tom Brocius who finished third in the state last year, and wrestles at 105-pounds for the Titans wasn't available for the tournament.

Coach Steve Axelrod who has guided his team to a 7-1 record so far this season was satisfied with his team performance in the tournament.

We have a young team, both Reagan and Frankenberger are juniors and we have only two seniors, so the boys are gaining experience as they go along," Axelrod said.

Tinley resumes mat action Friday, Jan. 7, against Stagg, at 6:30 p.m.

A Thought To Remember

BY BOB HIRSCH

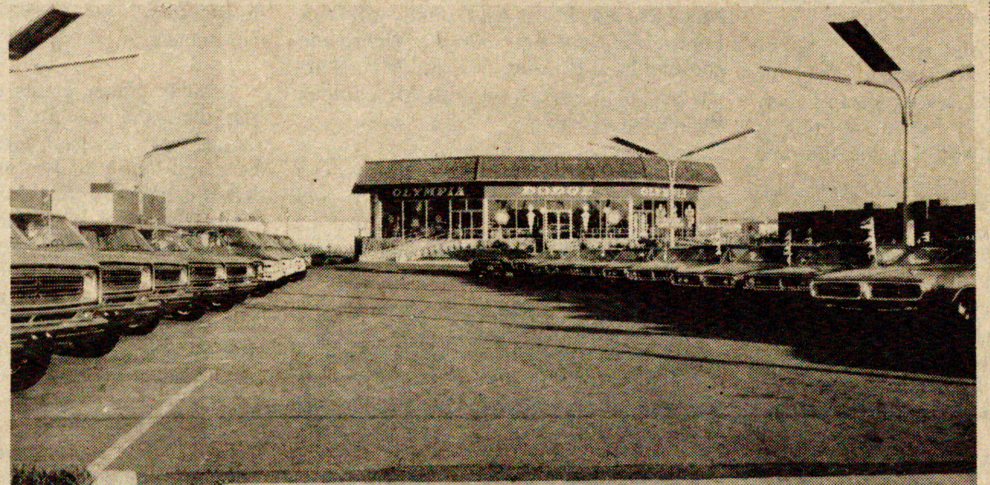

How many New Year resolutions did you hear people make? How many, if any, resolutions concerned individual action for the good of society as a whole instead of improvement or gain for self?

For example — how many people promised to change their goals? To lessen an interest in quality of personal possessions and strengthen quality of character in dealings with other people? To replace dislikes and hatreds with acts and evidence of love for their fellow man? To strive for agreement and union as a replacement for stubbornness or contrariness? To abstain from retaliation for alleged or actual wrongs by others? To tell the truth instead of seeking excuses for errors with the use of false or idle words? To decrease doubts, despair and fear — and increase hope and faith? To seek strength and calmness through daily prayer instead of occasional pleadings to Heaven when earthly props fail?

These are the sort of resolutions that only you can make for yourself. No one else can make them for you. And certainly no one else can keep them for you. A e they worth while? Only you can answer that. . . . May we mention again that your comment by letter, phone or person is always welcome — and appreciated — be it pro or con.

Cagers face top two

ORLAND PARK — The chances are slim that the Carl Sandburg Basketball team will boost its record this weekend as they face the two top teams in the Southwest Suburban Conference.

Friday the Sandburg gym will be invaded by the Vikings from Homewood Flossmoor. The Vikings presently hold down first place in the conference with a 4-0 record. The Vikings will start two 6-6 juniors, plus three senior regulars, starters for two years.

Saturday the Eagles travel to Rich East to meet Number two in the league.

The Rockets record shows but one loss, coming at the hands of Homewood, by three points.

"The Rockets play an aggressive man-to-man defense utilizing the full court press and the fast break," said assistant coach Paul Gilliland. Rockets have the Eagles first met East Aurora, and lost 106-65.

Eagle Art Crummie was the games leading scorer with 24 points, but his efforts were in vain as the Aurorans pulled away in the second quarter outscoring the Eagles 33-13.

In the consolation game the Eagles faced Palatine, winning in double overtime, 75-74.

Jim Koranda led all scoring with 28 points. The Eagles were losing early but tied it just before the final buzzer, 66-66.

In the first overtime both teams scored six points.

The second overtime the Eagles managed only three, but it was one more than Palatine.

Dave Lumley scored the winning point for the Eagles sinking one of two free shots.

In the consolation championship for third place the Eagles lost, 80-47. The problem was poor shooting as the Eagles made only 28 percent of their shots.

leagues top scorer, Kevin Hay, who is averaging close to 23 points per game.

The past holiday season wasn't too jolly for the Eagle courtmen as they finished fourth in the eight team Aurora tourney.

Eagle matmen strong

ORLAND PARK — Carl Sandburg's wrestlers proved over the holidays they are a top notch team. The Eagles took a strong second place finish in the 16 team Rich Rocket tourney in Park Forest.

Eagle Daune Capodice, who hasn't wrestled much this year, really showed well at Rich.

Capodice won the 138 pound title, sweeping through five straight matches, and was named Most Valuable Wrestler in the tourney.

John Walker also was outstanding and as the 132 pound champion.

Walker is the team's top point man and one of the most consistent grapplers on the squad.

Mike Kettman, although suffering his first setback of the season, finished second at 185.

Mark Butz took fourth at 98 and Jim Webster took third at 167.

Mark Eirekson was fourth at 167. Russ McGill and Denny Vincent were consolation champions at 126 and 138. One of the most interesting matches for Sandburg fans was for third place at the 167 pound were teammates Eirekson, with Webster taking a 5-4 win.

Sports Shorts

OAK FOREST — Registrations for Football Programs will be held at the Oak Forest High School starting at noon until 6 p.m. on Jan. 22.

Boys between the ages of 9 and 14 are asked to bring a copy of their birth certificates Jan. 22, and a physicians report by August 1st. Registration is $10.

The Park District will supply a helmet, shoulder pads, pants and a jersey. Also required, but not supplied by the park district, will be football shoes, supporter and mouth piece. The shoes must be with a molded sole.

This program has been in existence since the fall of 1971, organized by a group of fathers interested in competition between communities. Next year the teams will compete with other communities in league play and become a part of an organized league in the south suburban area. The Pee Wee "A" Team went undefeated last year and was presented with a plaque donated by the Interstate Bank in Oak Forest. The plaque will be a floating award to be presented each year to the team with the most outstanding record.

ORLAND PARK — The OYA basketball league for fourth through sixth graders will resume action this week after the two week break for the holidays.

With four games remaining to be played the championship is still in doubt.

Powerful IGA is on top with a perfect 6-0 record and is coming off a 88-4 victory over Dick's Shell.

Cooper Show Ford and Sunrise Heating trail IGA with 5-1 marks.

Three Sons is 4-2 and both Rafaz brothers and Orland State Bank have 3-3 marks. State Farm is 2-4 and the Lions Club is 1-5 as is Plaza Barbers.

Dick's Shell is still looking for that first win with a 0-6 record.

Cooper Show Ford, Sunrise Heating and Three Sons all still have a good shot at being first place finishers trailing undefeated IGA by only one and two games each.

OAK FOREST — The Oak Forest Baseball Association will conduct a Baseball Clinic for all the boys signed up for the coming season.

The clinic will be held at the Oak Forest High School Cafeteria, Saturday, Jan. 8, 9 a.m. to noon.

The instructors are: Bob Miller, Head Baseball Coach, Oak Forest High School; Dan Osinski, major league pitcher, Chicago White Sox; Bob Brasher, head baseball coach, Kansas State University; and Mel Krause, head baseball coach, University of Oregon, former Scout, San Francisco Giants and former professional baseball player.

Included will be fundamentals in fielding, batting, running, pitching, and catching as well as offensive and defensive strategy. For further information, call 687-4319, 687-1781 or 687-4223.

DEKALB — Fever felled Lincoln-Way cage ace Terry Ryan in the second round of the DeKalb Holiday tourney last week, and with Ryan out of the lineup the Knights were knocked out of contention. Ryan had led the Knights in their first round win 90-53, against Crystal Lake, scoring 34 points.

William G. Denison receives honors for service to veterans

TINLEY PARK — William G. Denison, 17613 S. 71st Court, was recently awarded the VFW medal of commendation and citation at the VFW of the United States, 16th District Department of Illinois and Ladies Auxiliary annual dinner dance held at the Chicago Heights VFW Post 2825.

The medal was presented to Denison for exemplary service to veterans for the past 28 years. The presentation was made by John Wolt, senior vice commander of the 16th District and member of the Tinley Park VFW Post 2791.

Denison started the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific general office employees Hospitalized Servicemen's Fund in 1943 at the Rock Island office where he was employed.

Each payday a collection was taken for servicemen at Hines and Vaughn Hospitals. Once a month Denison and others visited the hospitalized veterans.

After leaving the Rock Island, Denison joined the Brotherhood of Railway and Airline Clerks as a staff officer, where he remained until his retirement last May.

He was also active for over 35 years in the Chicago District Council of the BRAC, and served as its president for over 21 years.

Since the hospitalized veteran's fund was started, donations have included murals, two electric organs, a movie projector and speaker, two color televisions and a completed model railroad hobby shop used by the men for rehabilitation.

In the 28 years of contributions, a total of $67,500 has been donated by Rock Island office employees.

Denison, the father of eight children, seven of whom saw him receive the medal, still visits the hospitalized veterans each month.

Denison, and his wife, Mary also have 24 grandchildren. Denison is also a member of the Loyal Order of Moose, Lodge 3, American Medical Center at Denver, Colo., (cancer treatment, research and education), and a promoter for the Seraphic Mass Association of the Capuchin Franciscan Missions. He has also served on the "Back of the Yards Neighborhood Council."

To highlight our "American Way of Life," through the United States Department of Labor, Denison has received and entertained in his home, leaders in the transportation unions and visitors in this country from Germany, Japan and Brazil.

In addition, he has served on many committees and sponsored labor's participation in many activities.

When asked how he found time and energy for all of his activities, Denison said, "I have believed in what Longfellow said and have proven it to be so, namely, 'There never was a person who did anything worth doing that did not receive more than he gave.' "Thus you see, I'm actually selfish."

NEED INCOME?

For many and various reasons it is not economically wise to hold land after it reaches a certain level. In other cases where income is not too important it is wiser to inventory land and hope for appreciation. This is why we are still in business. We have both extremes and looking for more.
